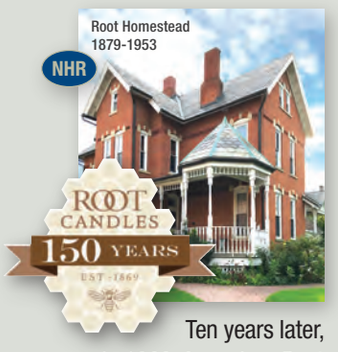
Start your visit on Medina Public Square – the heart of our "Best Hometown"

Founded in 1818 as the county seat, Medina was designed as a New England style town around a central greenspace. Construction of its original brick courthouse began in 1820 and the building still stands at the SW corner of Court and Liberty Streets.

Medina grew slowly as an agricultural community and as the legal hub of county business. As early as 1835 it was incorporated as the Village of Medina.

The larger Historic Courthouse on the SE corner of Liberty and Broadway was dedicated in 1841. It survived the great fires of 1848 and 1870, the later of which virtually destroyed the entire Square. The District was rebuilt with brick in the late 1800s, and endures as an outstanding example of late Victorian commercial architecture.

160 years ago in 1859, we enjoyed the first performance of the Medina Community Band – still playing in the gazebo on summer evenings.



Ten years later, in 1869, Amos Ives Root was inspired by a swarm of bees on his store window to launch a new business that became the beekeeping, honey and candle company that made Medina a center of the industry and gave us our "Medina Bees" mascot.

By 1950, Medina had grown to more than 5,000 people and became a chartered city in 1952. In 1970, the population had doubled and the community responded with paved roads, the acquisition of extensive parklands, city service improvements and new schools.

HISTORIC MEDINA OHIO
A MAIN STREET COMMUNITY

Over time, the many historic buildings on the Square were enveloped in "modern" facades and huge signage. The charm and beauty of the Victorian era architecture was hidden from view.

In 1967, a group of concerned residents formed the Community Design Committee and worked with property owners to restore the Square to its pre-WWII appearance. Building by building, modern updates were removed and historic facades revealed or rebuilt. Within eight years, the Square was largely restored to its historic beauty – all with private funding. The district was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1975.

From 1970 to 2000, Medina's population grew by 130%. In response, the community built new schools, Performing Arts and Recreation Centers, an expanded library and a parking deck. Offering a vibrant mix of attractions, events, retail and eateries, Medina welcomes thousands of visitors each year.

2018 2019 Ohio Magazine's Best Hometown MEDINA

Since 2006, Ohio Magazine has annually recognized places that reflect the values that make Ohio a great place to live – community spirit, education, entertainment, health and safety, business environment, culture and heritage. Medina is pleased to be a 2018-2019 honoree.

Shop

Stroll around our beautiful Public Square for a shopping experience that will remind you of days gone by. There's something for everyone from elegant Amish hand-crafted furniture, to an old-fashioned hardware store and a designer bridal shop. You'll even find tasty homemade treats for man's best friend.

Dine

From a casual breakfast or lunch to a gourmet dining experience, Medina boasts a variety of restaurants, diners, tearooms and taverns that will serve up whatever you crave. Just want a snack? Our bakeries, coffee shops, ice cream or yogurt parlors and popcorn shop are sure to satisfy.

Unwind!

Just people-watching from a bench on our tree-filled Square is fun, but be sure to visit some of our area attractions or explore our historic neighborhoods. Seasonal festivities include the annual holiday candlelight walk, farmers' market late spring to fall and summer band concerts.
